2. [] gave a report on the progress of the CFC. Mr. Proctor urged that those who plan to contribute do so as soon as possible.

3. Mr. Proctor described the briefing for the DCI on SAFE. Judging by Mr. Colby's reactions, we are almost certain to get some sort of program, but the pace and scale are still matters for discussion.

4. Mr. Colby has met with General Haig who is anxious to take up Mr. Colby's offer of on-site support in Brussels. This may result in our stationing an officer there.

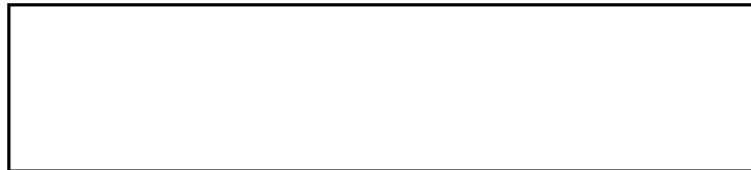

5. Mr. Proctor reported on last Friday's meeting of the Intelligence Panel of the NSCIC Working Group. The Intelligence Panel recommended that the initial meeting of the Working Group be devoted to a gripe session with members putting all their complaints on the table. General Wilson seems quite interested in making the Intelligence Panel and the Working Group going concerns.

25X1 6. Mr. Colby is concerned about the Agean oil problem and would like to see a feature article on the subject. He also is concerned about what he regards as our inadequate melding of economic and political reporting. [] is preparing a memo on the problem.

7. Mr. Proctor discussed DDI policy on hiring annuitants as consultants. As a general matter, he prefers that on substantive matters offices refrain from hiring retirees and look instead to younger people in academia.
